Too often, YMCA staff react to job vacancies rather than consciously evaluating and proactively planning their future Y career. Be prepared when a job change becomes appropriate. This visual, insightful, and straight forward workshop will examine career planning; discuss employment tips & strategies; identify available resources; highlight pointers for career advancement; and review effective strategies that will keep you a step ahead of the competition.

This is a workshop for all levels of YMCA staff - especially those whose Y career will extend into the next decade. Filled with solid, useful information, this is a program you can not afford to miss!
